Community Impact Case Study: Share our suits

The situation

We all know how important it is to feel confident when attending an interview.

At a series of recent meetings, attendees were asked to bring unwanted suits and clothing suitable to wear for interviews to donate to local organizations.

What worked

These donations were coupled with brief networking opportunities or with attendees recording brief tips around interviewing or other job skills.

Items donated included:

- Suits & Formal Clothes
- Shoes & Handbags
- Shirts & Blouses
- Ties, Cuff Links, Belts
- Coats & Warm Jackets
- Suit Covers & Carriers

Sample charity partners included:

- Suited and Booted
- Smart Works

Results

Hundreds of outfits were collected and went directly to local organizations to help community members pursue new opportunities.
